DCIU – 200 Yale Avenue, Morton, PA 19070
“Teaching Social Skills”
Presenter(s) Nora Connell

DCIU Professional Development Specialist

Students with disabilities often struggle with making friends and navigating their way through our complex social environment. This workshop will focus on helping parents understand and use strategies to help their child be more successful in social situations. Hands on activities related to teaching social skills will be embedded in this workshop.

Thursday, March 18, 2010 – 6:00-8:00 P.M.
DCIU – 200 Yale Avenue, Morton, PA 19070
“Siblings of Children with Special Needs”
Presenter(s) Becky Millspaugh

DCIU Professional Development Specialists

Disabilities affect the lives of all family members, especially siblings within a family. This workshop is designed to provide opportunities for discussion and information to help increase parents' and providers' understanding of the unique needs of sibling issues and strategies to help organize and provide support for all children in the family.

All Parent Workshops are free of charge and open to the public.
